I WANT TO TRY IT!

STUDENT-FOR-A-DAY

If I am undecided about which program to choose, I can try the student-for-a-day program.

It will give me the opportunity to visit the facilities, learn more about the college, meet the teachers, connect with current students, and get answers to any of my questions. I may also get to participate in some of the educational activities being offered by the programs I am interested in.

I can register online at: www.cegepsi.ca/student-for-a-day

GUIDED TOUR

If I want to discover all the services and facilities of the Cégep, I can get a personalized tour for me and my friends.

My academic advisor can help me with:

- Information on the features and content of my program
- My academic progress
- Course selection, course withdrawal, remedial courses, program change, etc.
- Educational or personal difficulties

CENTRE D'AIDE EN FRANÇAIS (CAF)

Room P-210a (Library)

The "Centre d'aide en français" is a place where I can get help with the French language. I can seek assistance for spelling, verb conjugation, grammar, editing a text, etc. Among other things, the CAF offers a range of reference books and manuals, individualized services adapted to my concerns, advice on my writing assignments, and guidance on the purchase and use of French-language material.

WORKSHOPS

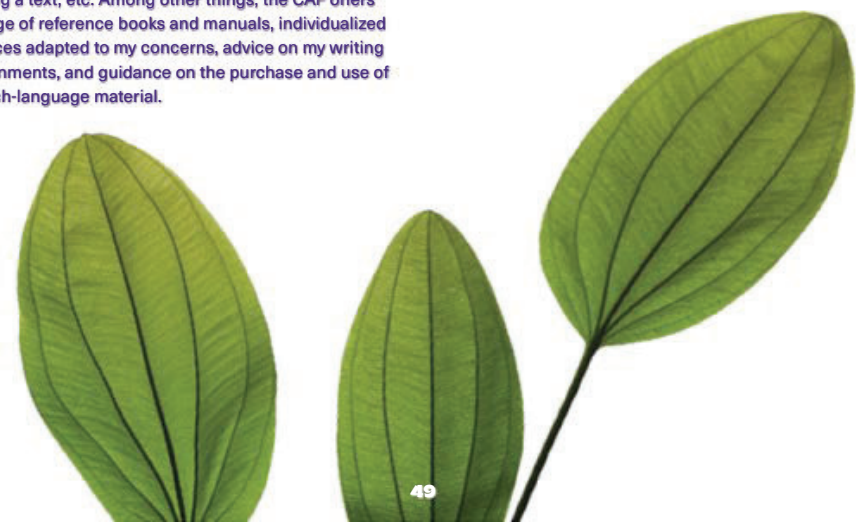

- Time management
- Stress management
- Note-taking
- Healthy lifestyle habits
- Meditation

ADAPTED SERVICES

Jonathan Blais, jonathan.blais@cegepsi.ca

If I have special needs (physical disabilities, learning disabilities, a neurological disorder, etc.), I can receive the necessary accommodations to help with my integration and contribute to my success (extra time, evaluation software, adapted classroom, etc.).

In order to receive these services and support from teachers and staff, I must provide the Adapted Services Counsellor with supporting documentation signed by a medical or qualified professional.

OTHER SERVICES THAT CONTRIBUTE TO MY SUCCESS

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID

Jonathan Blais, jonathan.blais@cegepsi.ca

The financial aid officer assists me in applying for a loan or a bursary and with getting help while awaiting funds.

LIBRARY

biblio@cegepsi.ca

- Various documents (books, reference manuals, periodicals, newspapers, audiovisual documents)
- Professional assistance and advising services for research
- Work spaces for individual and group work
- Access to other libraries in the college network
- Media production equipment

STUDENT CO-OP

coop@cegepsi.ca

I can purchase school supplies, course notes, and new or used books. I can become a member by purchasing a partnership share that will entitle me to member prices.

CAFETERIA

kafe@cegepsi.ca

Monday to Friday, the cafeteria offers hot and cold menus for breakfast and lunch. There are also ready-to-serve cold dishes, snacks, and beverages.

ACADEMIC AND CAREER INFORMATION ADVISOR

William Phénix, william.phenix@cegepsi.ca
Marithé Beaudin-Mongeau, marithe.beaudin.mongeau@cegepsi.ca

Cégep de Sept-Îles provides me with an academic and career information service that:

- Informs me about different college and university programs, admission requirements, and selection criteria
- Organizes academic information sessions such as conferences, discussions, workplace visits, career days, etc.
- Provides updates on labour market conditions through these different activities

GUIDANCE COUNSELLORS

Virginie Gagné-Lamy, virginie.gagne-lamy@cegepsi.ca
Alexis Goulet, alexis.goulet@cegepsi.ca

The following services are available:

- Individual interviews and counselling services
- Information and research on different fields of study and jobs
- Various interests, aptitude or personality tests

STUDENT RESIDENCES

Jinny Beaudin, jinny.beaudin@cegepsi.ca

Six buildings, each with six 3-bedroom apartments available for students residing outside of Sept-Îles.

PSYCHOSOCIAL WORKER

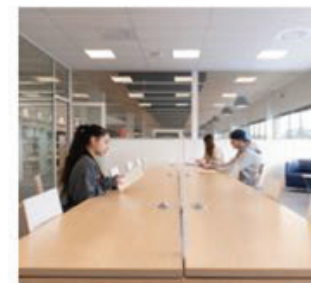

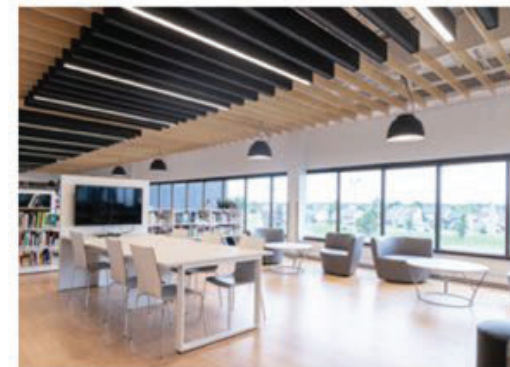

Johannie Roy, johannie.roy@cegepsi.ca
Mélissa Massé, melissa.masse@cegepsi.ca

If personal problems stand in the way of my academic success, if I need help, or information, talking to a psychosocial worker can help. Confidentiality is guaranteed.

TRANSPORTATION (FOR PORT-CARTIER STUDENTS)

Jinny Beaudin, jinny.beaudin@cegepsi.ca

Interbus is a public transportation service between Port-Cartier and Sept-Îles. To use this service, I must pay a $5 membership fee to be a CTASI member. I must then pay $395 for the semester. With my pass, I can also use TAXIBUS which is a local transportation service in Sept-Îles. If I don't want to pay for the term, I must pay $6 per ride and $10 to become a member.
